The case against the eleven Japanese who are charged with assaulting a fellow-countryman at Alea, was

Fadelle, who had appealed against being bound over to keep the peace in regard to his wife, withdrew his appeal this morning and was bound over in the sum of $300.

Morita, for malicious injury, had a suspended sentence of thirteen months recorded against him by Judge Andrade this morning.

Speaker Holstein is considerably incensed because some members persist in trying to joke during working hours.
Jokes are out of order, he contends.

M. K. Kealawa has been granted a license to practice law in the district courts of the Territory. Mr. Kealawa is a member of the House of Representatives from the Second District.

Two bunches of gamblers were hailed in this morning; one of four hailed from the Winston block, and the other, consisting of twelve Chinese, was from Vineyard street.

Emory Harris was committed to the Circuit Court this morning by Judge Andrade. Bail in $500 was allowed but Harris and his friends seem a little shy of that amount.

The report of the Health and Police Committee on the trip to the leper settlement last Sunday was presented in the House this morning. It is the same as the Senate report, summarized elsewhere.

Kahololo, Larsen, Gonz, and Kidder all seem to have attained a high mark in a boozing competition, but the native evidently did a bit better than the rest of the bunch, as his contribution was $7; the rest dug four dollars each. Judge Andrade was referee.

During a cloudburst at Laupahoehoe on Friday night, four inches of rain fell and a part of the village was under water for a short time. Roads were again washed out and traffic suspended until temporary repairs were made. The stages were running within a day after the storm.

Colonel Schuyler of Lihue has detained a Portuguese saloonkeeper who was alleged to be conveying liquor to the military reservation.
Inspector Fennel was called up by phone and requested to go out to the cantonment at once. It is hard to say what will be done in the case until Fennel returns from Lihue.

E. O. Hall & Son has received a query as to the whereabouts of A. S.
Norquist, who formerly traveled for the Baum Iron Company of Denver, Colo. He is supposed to be in this city employed by some of the heavy hardware firms. Mr. Baum desires to acquaint him of sickness in his family and anyone who can give any information regarding his whereabouts will confer a favor.

Rear Admiral H. Ijichi, Captain Gi-taro Ishii, of the Aso, Flag Commader N. Sakamoto, Captain Tetsutaro Sato of the Soya, and Consul General Uyeno, paid their official aloha to the House this morning and said good-bye, the squadron leaving for San Francisco tomorrow. The Speaker and Representative Coney met them on behalf of the House and felicitations and good wishes were exchanged. The Japanese naval officers also called on the Senate and were fittingly received.

The Japanese band from the cruisers of the training squadron played in the bandstand of the Capitol grounds this morning for an hour, serenading the Legislature and the Government officials. A large crowd, the majority of whom were Japanese, gathered on the grounds to listen to the music.
The playing of the band was much applauded, and considerable surprise was expressed that the little brown men should be able to get such good results with instruments that are new to the race and music that is so different from their national music.

REAR ADMIRAL SWINBURNE

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31.—The Japanese cruiser Aso and Soya will visit San Francisco about April 25th, according to advices received at the Navy Department. Two Japanese cruisers are being utilized for training purposes and carry 180 cadets. The ships are under command of Admiral Ijichi. They were captured during the Russo-Japanese war and used to be called the Itayan and Varlag.

The entertainment of the Japanese visitors is a serious problem. The Navy Department has no special entertainment fund and the only thing that can be done is to take a small amount from the contingent fund. A certain sum has been set aside for the purpose by Secretary Meyer, but it is not enough to give the Japanese sailors nearly as elaborate an entertainment as the Japanese gave the sailors of the American fleet. After visiting San Francisco the two cru-sers will go to Seattle.

The Kauai delegation in the House has sinned and its name is anathema.
Moreover, dire punishment has descended upon its collective heads and remorse knows at its individual souls like a cutworm at the root of a cabbage. Tears bathe the faces of the Representatives from the Garden Is-like a black cloud. Rice, Huddy, Coney and Sheldon pace the legislative corridors and tear their hair out by handfuls. But it is too late. The curse is upon them and there is no balm in Gilead.

This morning when the House assembled the members found upon their desks beautiful calendars, presented with the compliments of M. T. Silva, a member of the 1907 Legislature.
That is, all the members got calendars except the Representatives from Kauai. They were coldly and ostensitiously left out. Wherefore it is that the Kauaiites can give the Melancholy Dame cards and epodes and beat him to the pole when it comes to Gloom.

The members who are thus fearful-is because they refused to pass the Liquor bill. Mr. Silva says nothing.

ALAMEDA BRINGS
MANY TOURISTS

Popular Liner Arrives
With Full List Of Passengers

True to her wireless prophecy, the Oceanic liner Alameda arrived promptly on time this morning from San Francisco with a good-sized list of passengers for Honolulu. Prominent among the arrivals is George French, of the Salvation Army, commanding the Pacific Coast districts. Besides making annual visits to the islands French will visit a certain portion of Manoa valley, with a view of establishing permanent headquarters for the Salvation Army people in this Territory.

A. H. Anthony is a tourist, who brings his own motor car, in which he will travel around the island. T. P.
Hord is a well-known capitalist. He arrived this morning with his wife and daughter to make an extended stay in the islands.

The liner experienced rather nasty weather for a few days after leaving San Francisco, but the balance of the trip was pleasant. She brought for this port 57 cabin and 7 steerage passengers, 79 bags of mail and 1200 tons of general cargo.

U. OF C. WON

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 31.
The freshmen of California had their day yesterday. On the home grounds of the Stanford babies they won the fourth intercollegiate freshman track meet with the safe margin afforded by a score of 79 to 43. Although the cold affected the performances to a certain degree, yet two freshman records went by the board and in several other events the time was well up to standard. Newman of Stanford and Gabbert of California were the record-breakers. The former ran a perfect two-mile race, cool and easy all the way, and when he won in 10:11 he still appeared to have something in reserve. This time takes seventeen seconds off that made by Lester Thompson of California last year. Gabbert, the California captain, swung the 16-pound hammer out 141 feet 1 inch, taking the title away from Mung, with his 138-foot mark.

5-MINUTE LIMIT

speak longer than five minutes at any one time without the unanimous consent of the Senate.

As there already existed a rule limiting each man to two talks in any one debate, ten minutes is the gross period of time that any member will henceforth be allowed to devote to oratory on any particular bill.

The resolution was, doubtless, introduced to put a stop to a cheerful little practice which Senator Makekau introduced last week, when he announced that he would talk throughout the recess period unless his motion to defer action on a bill should carry. He did not carry out his threat, but he tried to.
